The impact of inflation on the economy and supply chain disruptions are something we are all feeling in our daily lives. Home rebuilding costs in particular are rising faster than we've seen in decades. From lumber to labor, from shingles to sheetrock, as prices go up, the cost of rebuilding and repairing your home needs to be reflected in your insurance policy.

Your policy renewal included in this packet has been adjusted to reflect these rising reconstruction costs and to ensure that you have the appropriate coverage amount necessary to rebuild your home in the event of a catastrophic loss.

How does inflation and rising construction costs affect my insurance policy?

When the cost of building materials and the laborers needed to make repairs go up, you risk not having enough coverage to rebuild your home to its current condition. Rising costs for things like lumber, roofing material, and drywall could leave you underinsured. We've adjusted the coverage amount for your home to help keep pace with these current inflationary trends.

(Source: Verisk Residential Replacement Cost Index 2Q2022)

I've read that there are shortages of some materials, and even of workers to come make repairs. How does that affect me?

When materials and workers are scarce, it will take more time to complete the repairs that are necessary to rebuild or repair your home. As those delays have gotten longer, the costs for alternative living arrangements go up too. Our inflation adjustment of the coverage for your home will automatically provide you with more coverage for temporary housing as well.

What can I do to help manage my insurance costs?

- If you have questions about the cost of your insurance and the amount of coverage provided by your TPC policy, the best resource is your independent insurance agent. A few minutes can go a long way to ease any worries about your coverage limits and the costs associated with properly protecting your home.
- Are you receiving all of the discounts that are available to you? Did you know that you can get a discount if your automobile coverage is written by the same agent as your home policy, even though it's not written by TPC? We've taken bundling to a whole new level! Why not talk to your agent about your auto coverage to make sure you qualify for a TPC discount? We also have a host of discounts for things like smoke detectors, deductibles, and even one for paperless policy delivery. Your agent is well versed on all of our discounts, so be sure to ask them to help maximize your savings by having the right coverage at the best available cost.

IMPORTANT POLICYHOLDER NOTICE

POLLUTION EXCLUSION

THIS NOTICE DOES NOT PROVIDE COVERAGE NOR DOES THIS NOTICE REPLACE ANY PROVISION OF YOUR POLICY. YOU SHOULD READ YOUR POLICY AND REVIEW YOUR DECLARATIONS PAGE FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION ON THE COVERAGES YOU ARE PROVIDED. IF THERE IS ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE POLICY OR ITS ENDORSEMENTS AND THIS NOTICE, THE PROVISIONS OF THE POLICY SHALL PREVAIL.

The Philadelphia Contributionship has filed and received approval for an exclusion that applies to your policy with regard to pollution. The Company no longer covers claims for losses under Section II - Liability cause by pollution, as described in the attached Pollution Exclusion. A list of items considered to be pollutants are included in the endorsement. If you have any concerns about obtaining pollution coverage for your property, please contact your independent insurance agent.

NEW JERSEY EARTHQUAKE INSURANCE AVAILABILITY NOTICE

All insureds and applicants are cautioned that homeowners/commercial fire and extended coverage insurance policies do not provide coverage for earthquake damage.

The definition of an earthquake:

- is a shaking or trembling of the earth that is geologic or tectonic in nature;
- includes shock waves or tremors before, during or after a volcanic eruption; and
- can also include after-shocks that occur within a seventy-two hour period following an earthquake.

A typical homeowners or commercial fire and extended coverage insurance policy:

- does not cover the cost to replace or repair your damaged dwelling, premises or structures, such as garages, resulting from an earthquake;
- does not cover the cost to replace or repair the contents of your home or business if the damages result from an earthquake; and
- does not pay for any additional living or business expenses if your property is badly damaged or destroyed by an earthquake.

Earthquake insurance is available through an endorsement to your policy for an additional premium. The decision to purchase earthquake insurance is one that should be carefully considered based on individual circumstances.

Please contact your agent if you have any questions or want additional information on how you can obtain earthquake insurance.

This notice is a general description of coverage and does not change, modify or invalidate any of the provisions, terms or conditions of your policy or endorsements.

FLOOD DAMAGE COVERAGE NOTICE

Homeowners and Dwelling Fire insurance policies do not cover property damage from flood.

Flood means the general condition of flooding typically caused by the overflow of any body of water above normal, cyclical levels, including storm surges, wave wash, tidal waves and mudslides.

In participating communities, flood insurance may be available through the National Flood Insurance Program at an additional premium.

The National Flood Insurance Program coverage contains separate content and structure coverage. You should consult with the National Flood Insurance Program, the Contributionship Companies, or your insurance agent, to determine if the coverage selected is appropriate for your needs.

EXPERIENCE RATING

Your policy premium will be affected by claim activity. An experience rating factor will be applied to all policies in accordance with the number of paid claims in a three-year consecutive period. The rating factor applies to your policy premium and is calculated by taking the Surcharge Base Factor multiplied by the fire and/or water factor from the following tables:

NUMBER OF PAID LOSSES IN 3 YEARS	YEARS WITH TPC	SURCHARGE BASE FACTOR

THIS SUMMARY HIGHLIGHTS THE NOTABLE COVERAGES AND EXCLUSIONS ASSOCIATED WITH YOUR HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE POLICY AND IS ONLY PROVIDED AS GUIDANCE IN HELPING YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR POLICY. THIS SUMMARY DOES NOT ALTER YOUR COVERAGE IN ANY WAY. YOUR INSURANCE POLICY IS A CONTRACT THAT GOVERNS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS. PLEASE CONTACT YOUR AGENT IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS. Most homeowners policies in New Jersey include the following common coverages:

- Dwelling (Coverage A) pays if your house is damaged or destroyed by a covered loss.
- Other structures (Coverage B) pays if structures not attached to your house, such as detached garages, storage sheds, and fences are damaged or destroyed by a covered loss.
- Personal property (Coverage C) pays if the items in your house (such as furniture, clothing, and appliances) are damaged, stolen, or destroyed by a covered loss.
- Loss of use (Coverage D) pays your additional living expenses (costs over the normal amount for housing, food, and other essential expenses) if you must temporarily move because damage to your house from a covered loss renders it uninhabitable.
- Personal liability (Coverage E) pays to defend you in court against certain lawsuits and provides coverage if you are found legally responsible for someone else’s injury or property damage.
- Medical payments to others (Coverage F) pays the medical bills of people hurt on your property. It might also pay for some injuries that happen away from your home, such as your dog biting someone at the park.

Policy Features:

- Companies may exclude coverage for certain losses. Even the most comprehensive policy will exclude certain types of damage.
- All policies include an all-peril deductible. The deductible is the portion for which you are responsible on a covered property loss.
- Some policies may include a separate mandatory hurricane deductible.
- Companies may offer optional coverages that include oil tank liability, identity fraud, coverage for water back up and sump pump overflow, ordinance or law coverage, earthquake, sinkhole, personal injury and scheduled personal property such as jewelry, fine arts, furs or silverware.

LIMITED FUNGI, WET OR DRY ROT, OR BACTERIA COVERAGE ENDORSEMENT

THIS NOTICE DOES NOT PROVIDE COVERAGE NOR DOES THIS NOTICE REPLACE ANY PROVISION OF YOUR POLICY. YOU SHOULD READ YOUR POLICY AND REVIEW YOUR DECLARATIONS PAGE FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION ON THE COVERAGES YOU ARE PROVIDED. IF THERE IS ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE POLICY OR ITS ENDORSEMENTS AND THIS NOTICE, THE PROVISIONS OF THE POLICY AND ITS ENDORSEMENTS SHALL PREVAIL.

The Philadelphia Contributionship has filed and received approval for an endorsement that applies to all policies that potentially limit the amount of coverage for Fungi, Wet or Dry Rot, or Bacteria. Your policy now contains a limit on the amount of coverage available to pay claims caused by these substances. The policy limit is indicated on your policy's declarations page.

The endorsement also adds additional coverage in certain cases, depending on the source of the Fungi, Wet or Dry Rot, or Bacteria. The additional coverage and revised policy exclusions are contained in the endorsement. If you have any concerns about coverage for Fungi, Wet or Dry Rot, or Bacteria with regard to your property, please contact your independent insurance agent.

POLICYHOLDER NOTICE

You should be aware that your policy includes a special Vacant House Deductible, which applies if a loss occurs when the insured location has been vacant for more than 30 days, and you did not let us know it would be vacant in advance. A vacant house is one that is substantially empty of furnishings and contents. Vacant homes are particularly susceptible to loss caused by fire, malicious mischief, and vandalism.

If the insured location is not vacant, the standard deductible shown on the policy's declarations page will apply.

As always, there are several ways you can contact The Philadelphia Contributionship to inform us of any change to your policy, including advising us of a pending vacancy. You can let us know by contacting your independent insurance agent, whose phone number is included on your policy declarations page. Your agent will let us know on your behalf. You can also call us directly at 1-888-627-1752 if you wish.

The amount of the Vacant House Deductible is 5% of the Coverage A value as shown on your policy's declarations page. The following is an example of how to calculate the amount of the deductible should it ever apply. In the example, we have assumed a sample $200,000 policy and a $50,000 loss amount for demonstration purposes. Your policy's actual Coverage A amount can be found on your declarations page.

Coverage A amount from the Declarations Page:	$200,000
times Vacant House Deductible percentage:	x .05
Vacant House Deductible, in dollars:	$10,000
 Covered Loss Amount:	 $50,000
 Amount You Pay:	 $10,000
 Amount We Pay:	 $40,000

This policyholder notice does not expand or remove coverage. In the event there is a conflict between the language in this notice and that of your policy, the terms of the policy shall apply.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT YOUR INSURANCE POLICY AND YOUR LOSS HISTORY INFORMATION

We want to thank you for your decision to purchase insurance coverage through The Philadelphia Contributionship. Being the oldest successful property and casualty insurance company in the United States, we have built a legacy of providing affordable coverage along with the strong financial security our customers rely on.

Many factors go into determining eligibility for coverage and your policy premium, including the use of information from your loss history report, and other consumer reports. Your policy premium was calculated using the lowest rate for which you qualified based on many factors, including a loss history report obtained from A-PLUS™. However, you may not be receiving our most discounted rate, based in whole or in part on the information supplied to us by ISO's Coverage Verifier Database.

A-PLUS™ did not determine your policy premium, and as such cannot explain or change any underwriting or pricing decision that was made. If you have reason to believe there may be an error on your report, you have a right to receive a free copy from ISO, provided you make a written request for the report within 60 days of the receipt of this notice. The request should be sent to the ISO address shown below.

ISO Consumer Inquiry Center Verisk, Analytics
1000 Bishops Gate Blvd., Suite 300
P. O. Box 5404
Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054-5404

You have the right to dispute any inaccurate information contained in the consumer report directly with ISO. If, after reinvestigation, such information is found to be inaccurate or unverifiable, the information must be deleted promptly from your records. You can then contact us directly or through your independent insurance agent to inform us of any correction.

CREDIT INFORMATION DISCLOSURE NOTICE NEW JERSEY

The Philadelphia Contributionship uses an insurance score in addition to traditional factors such as the amount of insurance, loss history, and the property's rating territory to determine your premium. An insurance score is developed from a mathematical model that weighs and measures credit information such as payment history, the number of collections, bankruptcies, outstanding debt, length of credit history, types of credit in use, and the number of new applications for credit. These factors identify credit management patterns that have proven to correlate with the probability of having a future insurance loss.

Generally speaking, the higher your score, the lower your premium. Most policyholders receive a more favorable premium because of their score. If the rate you received was adversely affected by your score, will receive a separate letter in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act. The insurance score is NOT the sole factor in determining the cost of your policy, but is used in combination with the traditional factors to provide you with the best premium for which you qualify.

Extraordinary Life Event

You may request reconsideration of an insurance score because of the direct influence of an extraordinary life event on your credit information. An extraordinary life event may include, but is not limited to: catastrophic illness or injury; death of a spouse, child, or parent; temporary loss of employment; military deployment overseas; divorce; or identity theft.

Please contact your agent for more information on your right to appeal.
